

2026-2028 SCORPIO VENUS CYCLE EPHEMERIS

2026-2028 SCORPIO VENUS OBSERVATION GUIDE

MORNING STAR PHASE: View Venus before sunrise in the east horizon.

24 Oct 2026: Venus Inferior Conjunction, 00°Sc45'

After a challenging period, this day is a welcome release. Carve out some time today to sit in the stillness of the void, where you can experience richness and abundance. It's a lucky day where gifts and gains might come, but the luckiest of all are the spiritual insights and clarity of your purpose. A great day to reconcile differences and recentre.

29 Oct 2026: Morning Rise, 27°Li46'

Your energy and motivation is back with a vengeance. Time to actualise what you've been brooding over. Courage is an asset. Get up early before sunrise and look east. Once you see the bright Venus Morning Star, it's time to push the 'go' button.

7 Nov 2026: 1st Venus-Moon Conjunction, 23°Li44'

Get up early before sunrise to see the first Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction in the east. Meditate on your crown chakra and what it means to remove your reliance on others to elevate you. A courageous first step to unmask your real self.

14 Nov 2026: Venus Stations Direct, 22°Li51'

Momentum is clearly moving forward now. Your intention is clear, confidence and self belief is growing. Observe where Venus is in the eastern sky before sunrise. Notice over the next couple of weeks that it will hardly move at all. Use this stubborn motion as your invitation to hyperfocus on something you desire. Continue to ask Venus for guidance in your morning meditation and observation.

5 Dec 2026: 2nd Venus-Moon Conjunction, 00°Sc34'

Get up early before sunrise to see the second Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction in the east. Meditate on your third eye. What can you see when you move the illusions of the world aside?

3 Jan 2027: 3rd Venus-Moon Conjunction, 26°Sc03'

The third Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction awaits you in the pre-dawn eastern sky. Meditate on your throat chakra. Do you need a loud voice to send a powerful message? What other ways can your voice have impact? Note the height of Venus in the morning sky. Soak in her brilliance.

2 Feb 2027: 4th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 28°Sg47'

For the fourth Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction, meditate on what sparks love and joy within your heart. Ultimately, it's your truth - have you been truthful to yourself? What needs to be removed to reveal your wholehearted truth?

5 Mar 2027: 5th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 04°Aq14'

The fifth Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction should be a familiar sight by now as you wake up. Visualise the bright light of Venus and the Sun in your solar plexus. Feel your confidence, creativity and vitality expand from there, through the pores of your skin and into your world.

4 Apr 2027: 6th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 10°Pi38'

The sacral chakra is where Venus and the Moon are concentrating on this month, where they feel most aligned. How can you invite more nourishment, pleasure, sensuality and creativity into life this month?

4 May 2027: 7th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 17°Ar15'

You'll start to see Venus move closer towards the horizon as you wake up with this Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction. It's time to get real and raw. Challenges to attachments, survival and primal urges can be faced.

3 Jun 2027: Final Venus-Moon Conjunction, 23°Ta47'

Most likely the last time you'll see the Venus - Waning Moon Conjunction in the morning skies. Prepare to descend, surrender to all attachments. Trust in the process - that's all you have.

6 Jul 2027: Morning Set, 04°Cn20'

Venus is now invisible. You won't see Venus for around 73 days. Without her light, chaos, conflicts and challenges might arise; a for the shadows to come out and play. Your depth and inner resources will be put to the test. Retract, retreat, surrender and purge.

EVENING STAR PHASE: View Venus after sunset at the western horizon.

12 Aug 2027: Venus Superior Conjunction, 19°Le06'

Resurrection! Help has come and a glimmer of hope is now in sight. Another gift is in store for you, but the best ones are the spiritual insights and personal growth. It's a long road to recovery but inspiration is beginning to seep in. Take note of what is happening in life right now because it will be an important theme for the nine months ahead.

17 Sep 2027: Evening Rise, 04°Li14'

Venus is back, this time in the evening sky just after sunset on the western horizon. Make sure you head out every night this week to see the first appearance of Venus. This is the beginning of the ascension and you'll feel your power growing and evolving as Venus' light grows.

1 Oct 2027: 1st Venus-Moon Conjunction, 21°Li14'

Watch the first Venus Moon Conjunction in the western sky at sunset, this time with the waxing moon. Meditate on how you'd like to rebuild yourself - what are your essentials? Have your priorities changed?

31 Oct 2027: 2nd Venus-Moon Conjunction, 28°Sc40'

The second Venus - Waxing Moon Conjunction awaits. Meditate on the depth that the past year has given you so that you can transform this into your own creative asset and endeavours.

30 Nov 2027: 3rd Venus-Moon Conjunction, 06°Cp16'

The third Venus - Waxing Moon Conjunction calls for contemplation around your power, confidence and vitality to engage within the structures and paradigms you find yourself in, with grace.

31 Dec 2027: 4th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 13°Aq46'

The fourth Venus - Waxing Moon Conjunction brings themes of authenticity, genuine truth and individuation. Meditate on how you can be unashamedly you, whilst having compassion and care to hold differing opinions.

30 Jan 2028: 5th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 20°Pi30'

The fifth Venus - Waxing Moon Conjunction will challenge you to speak your truth. Meditate on what holds you back from elevating your voice. Consider other ways that truth can be shared, beyond the voicebox.

29 Feb 2028: 6th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 25°Ar15'

By now, the sixth Venus - Waxing Moon Conjunction will be reaching new heights. You'll see this powerful configuration for a good part of the early evening. What a sight to behold and burn into your senses as a reminder of your evolved and compassionate leadership power.

30 Mar 2028: 7th Venus-Moon Conjunction, 25°Ta47'

We get to the final chakra where the crown is reclaimed. This seventh Venus - Waxing Moon Conjunction is a reminder that leadership comes from the heart and is informed by the senses, making community, connection and collaborations a key ingredient to abundance.

28 Apr 2028: Final Venus-Moon Conjunction, 16°Ge40'

The final invitation to see the forward moving Venus as she makes a conjunction with the Waxing Moon. Soak in the brilliance of the western night sky.

10 May 2028: Venus Stations Retrograde, 19°Ge41'

Note where Venus is in the western sky as it will remain there for the next week as it prepares to turn backwards. Mimicking Venus' movement, this is your invitation to pause as well. Sometimes, it's good to look backwards in order to know what's ahead. What past lessons can you learn from?

26 May 2028: Evening Set, 15°Ge11'

Finally, we get to the last phase of the Venus Cycle. Venus is old, weary and ready to sleep. Your environment may also reflect the need to surrender - purging and releasing what's not needed anymore might be part of this process. With energy, capacity and tolerance levels declining rapidly, the time to fight your battles comes later, despite the temptation to react to things that are irritating you. For now, retreat and digest what has been from the past 18 months as you see Venus disappear from the western sky, invisible for the next 40 days.
